

Working with Sara Alvarado was great. She made the intimidating task of home buying an enjoyable experience. She did not treat me like just a potential paycheck and try to sell me something that wasn't right for me, but more like a family member who showed genuine interest, care and concern and actually advised me against some of my choices. Her knowledge and around-the-clock dedication got me the home I wanted most in less than 4 weeks from start to finish and her negotiating skills got it at the price I wanted.

I would highly recommend Sara to anyone who is interested in buying or selling a home & is looking for a knowledgeable, experienced & caring agent to help them do it.
